

KU LEUVEN

GHENT UNIVERSITY

Contract @ Parent university

PhD

You will work under employment contract for one of our parent universities, Ghent University or KU Leuven. This entails that you will work under their employment terms.

Employment terms @KU Leuven.

Employment terms @Ghent University.

Although as a PhD student, you work under the daily supervision of Vlerick faculty, the doctoral programme itself is organized through our parent universities. This implies doctoral candidates graduate at one of the parent universities when they have successfully completed their doctoral study programme.

Working @ Vlerick

Vlerick Business School partners up with different interesting partners and/or helps you obtain funding and will as such fund your PhD trajectory.

As a PhD student at Vlerick, you will be performing academic research close to business. This way of working ensures gaining a lot of knowledge relevant to business and society. While providing services to the school, you will also have the possibility of academic and business networking.

You will work in a stimulating organisation that aims to have a positive impact on businesses and society at large through research and teaching.
